Resurrection Troparion (Tone 3)
Let all in heaven rejoice! Let all on earth be glad! For the Lord has acted, mighty in His arm: He has trampled down death by death! He has become the first-born of the dead! He has delivered us from the pit of Hades, And has granted to the world his great mercy.

Troparion to St. Auxentius (Tone 1)
Dweller of the desert and angel in the body, You were shown to be a wonder, our God-bearing Father Auxentius. You received heavenly gifts through fasting, vigil, and prayer: Healing the sick and the souls of those drawn to you by faith. Glory to Him who gave you strength! Glory to Him who granted you a crown! Glory to Him who through you grants healing to all!

Resurrection Kontakion (Tone 3)
On this day You rose from the tomb, O Compassionate Lord, leading us out from the gates of death. Adam dances for joy today and Eve rejoices. Together with the prophets and patriarchs, they never cease to sing the praise of the Divine power of Your might.

Kontakion to St. Auxentius (Tone 2)
You delighted in abstention, Restraining the desires of the flesh. Divinely wise and holy Father Auxentius, You were revealed to be shining with faith, Divine power of Your might. Compassionate Lord, Saint Zacchaeus was a rich publican worker, our God with loud songs of joy!

Alleluia Verses:
In You, O Lord, have I hoped; let me never be put to shame! Be a God of protection for me, a house of refuge, in order to save me!

Communion Hymn:
Praise the Lord from the heavens! Praise Him in the highest!

Zacchaeus...
The holy Apostle Zacchaeus was a rich publican at Jericho. Since he was short of stature, he climbed a sycamore tree in order to see the Savior passing by. After the Ascension of the Lord, Saint Zacchaeus accompanied Saint Peter on his travels. Tradition says he became the Bishop of Caesarea in Palestine, where he died in peace. The Gospel (Luke 19:1-10) describing Zacchaeus’ encounter with Christ is read on the Sunday before the Tridion begins. In this way the Lenten journey should begin with a recognition of sinfulness, just as Zacchaeus recognized his sins. He promised to make restitution by giving half of his wealth to the poor and by paying to those he had falsely accused four times as much as they had lost. In this, he went beyond the requirements of the Law (Ex. 22:3-12). Just as Zacchaeus “sought to see who Jesus was” (Luke 19:3), that same desire and effort to see Jesus starts the movement through Lent towards Pascha. It is the first movement of salvation. Zacchaeus is remembered on April 20.

The Reading from the First Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to Timothy
1 Timothy 4:9-15
My Son Timothy: This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. These things command and teach. Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.

Livestream with Archbishop Paul February 14...
• THE MIDWEST DIOCESE CENTRE FOR FAMILY LIFE invites you to an interactive online meeting that will give an exciting opportunity for parents, grandparents, godparents, and teachers to pose their questions to Bishop Paul.
• The next Livestream is scheduled for SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14th @ 7:00 PM and the topic is “Who is God?”
• To join, go to the Orthodox Family YouTube page at: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCBV_Ma7zViQFqe-qNgdAh8w.

“The Joy of the Fast”...
• Fr. Tim will be resuming daily videos as we start the Pre-Lenten cycle in mid-March. The theme of the videos will be “The Joy of the Fast,” primarily using the texts from the Lenten Triodion that stress the joy of the time of the Fast as well as being joyous as we fast.
• Be sure to subscribe to our Holy Trinity YouTube page so you don’t miss any of the videos!
