Prokeimenon (Tone 5)
You shall protect us and preserve us from this generation forever. In my mouth I will proclaim Your truth from generation to generation.

The Reading from the first Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Brothers and sisters: All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Certainly not! Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For “the two,” He says, “shall become one flesh.” But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him. Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.

“The Joy of the Fast”...
Look for the video on the Sunday of the Prodigal Son later this afternoon with your “This Week at Holy Trinity” email. Be thinking about this portion of the Gospel: “But the father said to his servants, Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. And bring the fattened calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.” The next video will be on Saturday, March 6 for the Saturday of the Departed. In each of the videos during the time of the Lenten Triodion, Fr. Tim will reflect on texts from the Triodion and read a homily from the Prologue of Ohrid by St. Nikolai of Zhicha. Be sure to subscribe to our Holy Trinity YouTube page so you don’t miss any of the videos!

We Welcome all visitors to the Divine Liturgy. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the Cross and receiving bread at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy. Please join us in the fellowship of our social hour following Liturgy.
