Resurrection Troparion (Tone 1)

*When the stone had been sealed by the Jews, while the soldiers were guarding Your immaculate body,
You rose on the third day, O Savior,
granting life to the world.
The Powers of Heaven therefore cried out to
You, O Giver of Life:
Glory to Your Resurrection, O Christ!
Glory to Your Kingdom!
Glory to Your Divine Plan, for You alone love mankind.*

Troparion for All Saints of North America (Tone 8)

*As the bountiful harvest of Your sowing of salvation,
The lands of North America offer to You, O
Lord, all the saints who have shone in them.
By their prayers keep the Church and our land
in abiding peace//
Through the Theotokos, O most Merciful One.*

Resurrection Kontakion (Tone 1)

*As God, You rose in glory from the tomb, raising the world with Yourself.
Human nature sings Your praise as God, for death has vanished.
Adam dances for joy, O Master!
And Eve, now freed from her bonds, cries out to You in joy:
"You are the One Who grants resurrection to all, O Christ!"*

All Saints of North America Kontakion (Tone 3)

*Today the choir of Saints who were pleasing to God in the lands of North America now stands before us in the Church and invisibly prays to God for us.
With them the angels glorify Him,
and all the Saints of the Church of Christ keep
the feast with them;
and together they all pray for us to the God
Who exists before the ages.*

Prokeimenon (Tone 1)

*Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You.
Verse: Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous!
Praise befits the just!*

Alleluia Verses:

*God gives vengeance to me, and subdues people under me.
He magnifies the salvation of the king, and deals with His Christ, with David and his seed forever.*

Communion Hymns:

*Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! Praise befits the just!
Their proclamation has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the universe!*

The Reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Romans (2:10-16)

Brothers and Sisters: Glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For there is no partiality with God. For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law (for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

Blessing of Cars July 18...

- On or near July 20, it has become tradition to bless vehicles in commemoration of the holy prophet Elijah who was taken into heaven on a fiery chariot. The glorious prophet Elijah is therefore known as the patron saint of vehicles, reminding us that we must struggle to manifest holiness in our lives, especially when we travel. We will bless cars after Liturgy on July 18.

From Vespers for the Saints of North America...

"Come, let us praise the saints of North America, holy hierarchs, venerable monastics and glorious martyrs, pious men, women and children, both known and unknown. Through their words and deeds, in various walks of life, by the grace of the Spirit they achieved true holiness. Now as they stand in the presence of Christ Who glorified them, they pray for us who celebrate their memory with love."

*Rejoice, O mountains of Pennsylvania; leap for joy, O waters of the Great Lakes; rise up, O fertile plains of Canada; for the elect of Christ who dwelt in you are glorified, men and women who left their homes for a new land. With faith, hope, and patience as their armor, they courageously fought the good fight. Comforted by the beauty of the Orthodox Faith, they labored in mines and mills, they tilled the land, they braved the challenges of the great cities, enduring many hardships and sufferings. Never failing to worship God in spirit and truth and unyielding in devotion to His most pure Mother, they erected many temples to His glory. Come, O assembly of the Orthodox, and with love let us praise the holy men, women, and children, those known to us and those known only to God, and let us cry out to them:
"Rejoice, all Saints of North America and pray to God for us!"*

We Welcome all visitors to the Divine Liturgy. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the Cross and receiving bread at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy.
Please join us in the fellowship of our social hour following Liturgy.
